Call for Papers: 2019 Symposium on Education in Entertainment and Engineering

The Department of Theatre and The School of Engineering Education at Purdue University announces the first Symposium on Education in Entertainment and Engineering, to be held July 25-27, 2019. This event aims to foster discussion, collaboration, and dissemination of work related to instruction and education of students seeking careers where engineering and live entertainment converge.

The Symposium Committee invites all those interested to submit proposals for papers, posters, and panels. Panels should consist of three authors/papers. All proposals should include an abstract no longer than 500 words, proposal title, 200-word biography, current CV (with contact information for each individual), and any requests for audio/visual equipment necessary for presentation.

Submissions must be made via email to Rich Dionne (rdionne@purdue.edu) no later than November 15, 2018. Questions about the symposium or the submission process can be directed to the same.
